The bright, vibrant colors in Christopher Bibby's 2010 Rose Festival poster bring Portland to vivid life, highlighting Waterfront Village and the iconic Rose Building rose. Renowned local artist Bibby brings his distinctive style to show the Festival in all its glory. Be sure to stop by the Handmade NW Artisans Pavilion at Waterfront Village to meet Christopher! The poster image measures 18" x 24" and is also available as a note card and a stylish t-shirt. Poster: $15.00 T-shirt: $15.00 Note Card: $1.50 or $10.00 for 10.

The 2010 souvenir pin is extra special this year. Not only does the iconic rose celebrate the Festival's new permanent presence on Portland's waterfront, but for the first time, it also acts as a Season Pass! By wearing the pin, you get unlimited access to all 14 days of the 2010 Waterfront Village. Available through the Rose Festival and participating Fred Meyer stores. $5.00

Set against the Portland skyline and Mt. Hood, the Rose Festival's symbolic rose shines brightly on this limited collectible pin. With only 1,500 pins produced each year, this is a great way to begin your own special Festival collection. $12.50

Just as the Rose Building's neon rose lights up the skyline of Portland, this beautifully sculpted cell-powered pin will show your Rose Spirit with the help of five bright flashing LED lights. These pins are worn with pride by the court in the Rose Festival Starlight Parade. $10.00

"From One Rose" is a cinematic journey through the life of a woman born at the turn of the century in Portland, Oregon, who grows up with the Rose Festival.

Viewers will experience the evolution of a wild west stump town into a modern metropolis - Portland, one of the country's most livable cities - through the Roaring 20's, the Great Depression, two world wars and the baby boomer generation, up to the 21st Century. $15.00

The iconic rose on Portland's waterfront Rose Building is captured by local artist Marla Schroeder on these two special postcards. With her passion for preserving history through art, Marla's work represents the Portland Rose Festival Foundation and the City of Portland in historic grace and style. $1.00 each

These stylish Rose Festival hoodies will keep you warm and dry as you enjoy the Festival every year. Available in S, M, L, & XL. $30.00
